New Available Options and Colors for 2025 Can-Am Spyder and Can-Am Ryker Models

Valcourt, Quebec, August 20, 2024 – Can-Am, iconic brand of BRP Inc. (TSX:DOO; NASDAQ:DOOO), today reveals the all-new Can-Am Canyon 3-wheel vehicle as part of its 2025 lineup. The Can-Am Canyon is the most rugged and adventure-ready 3-wheel vehicle BRP has ever made. With distinct features like higher ground clearance, longer suspension travel, all-road wheels, enduro anti-slip pegs and more, the Canyon is purpose-built to take riders on any adventure they desire, be it quick trips on unexplored roads or multi-day excursions.

The 2025 Can-Am Canyon opens more backcountry roads for the 3-wheel rider than ever before. Packed with impressive technology, practical features and unprecedented storage capacity, the Can-Am Canyon offers an accessible route into the popular adventure touring market with a stable ride and features designed for protection and comfort so riders of all skill levels can feel confident in a variety of conditions. Three adventure-ready trim options (Standard, XT, Redrock) will be available at Can-Am dealers spring of 2025 along with 25 convenient accessories designed specifically for the Canyon line of 3-wheel vehicles.

“The brand-new 2025 Can-Am Canyon is designed for the adventurous spirit and tailored for those who seek the road less traveled,” said Elsa Vilarinho, Director Global Brand Strategy, Can-Am On-Road, Ski-Doo & Lynx. “With the popularity of adventure touring growing year after year, Can-Am is excited to offer a product that increases overall accessibility into this segment of riding.”
